Remarks

PROGRAM

On the first two seminar days, there will be 4 sessions: GENERAL, FOIL, SABRE and EPEE. All candidates need to attend the GENERAL session (which covers the various safety checks, the use of the frame, the competition format, good hand signals, penalties etc) and can then attend the separate sessions for the weapon they have registered to get a licence for. Each of the weapon sessions will have a discussion part about the specific weapon with practical demonstrations. The candidates passing the GENERAL and weapon specific sessions will do a final practical examinations during the World Cup.

If you have questions concerning program, etc., please contact the referee commission via email: referee.commission@iwasf.com
