ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation that is offered by the Local Organizers must be requested through the following forms and the cost paid to IWAS.

ACCOMODATION FORM: <https://forms.gle/WQ9tt7WhoYTmNnkS7>

FLIGHT DETAILS FORM: <https://forms.gle/rTpJWSRinW8EhxBJ8>

In the accommodation rate is included:

- hotel (double room)
- 3 meals per day
- transportation from/to airport and between hotel and venue

Participants can organize their own accommodation, in this case transportation and meals will not be provided.

COURSE PROGRAM:

On the first two seminar days, there will be 3 sessions: GENERAL, FOIL and EPEE.

All candidates need to attend the GENERAL session (which covers the various safety checks, the use of the frame, the competition format, good hand signals, penalties etc) and can then attend the separate sessions for the weapon they have registered to get a licence for.

Each of the weapon sessions will have a discussion part about the specific weapon with practical demonstrations.

The candidates passing the GENERAL and weapon specific sessions will do a final practical examination during the competition.

If you have questions concerning program, etc., please contact the referee commission via email: referee.commission@iwasf.com

COVID regulations:

Participants must check, and ensure they can meet all the requirements and countermeasures for COVID in India for their participation and travel.

For greater security, we recommend that participants have a full set of vaccines.

VISA requirements:

Participants must review the requirements requested by India for their countries on the subject of visas. If you require a letter of invitation from the organizers for this process, please contact us by email: wheelchairfencing@iwasf.com
